1981 Media Guide

ON THE COVER: Quarterback David Woodley, a sensational rookie in 1980 and the catalyst to a rebuilding Miami offense, swept NFL All-Rookie honors by directing five victories. He was the first Dolphin rookie since Bob Griese in 1967 to win the team's Most Valuable Player award. He hails from Louisiana, the training ground for Terry Bradshaw, Bert Jones and Joe Ferguson.

JOSEPH ROBBIE

President and Managing General Partner

Thomas Carlyle, the Scot essayist and historian, once observed:

"Every noble work is at first impossible."

In the sense that the Miami Dolphins imbued their community with enormous pride, pro football in South Florida was a noble accomplishment. Certainly it was an impossible task, if one listened to the legion of skeptics in 1965.

Joseph Robbie would not listen to the disbelievers. None of the hardships of building a championship team from scratch would subdue Robbie once he took his first determined step 16 years ago. His uncanny foresight and perseverence have prevailed.

As president and managing general partner, he has propelled the Dolphins from underdogs to champions. He has weathered the financial chaos of a struggling expansion team and dispensed more than $1.5 million of philanthropy.

Pro football has burgeoned by 16 teams since 1960, and the Dolphins stand alone among the newcomers in having won consecutive championships. The goal of National Football League superiority was achieved not in the 12 years it required Dallas, nor in the 17 years it took Oakland, but in just seven years for Miami.

And the Dolphins did more than capture the NFL crown. They bejeweled it with 17 perfect stones. An unprecedented record of 17-0 that 1972 season brought the Super Bowl title to South Florida, and then the Dolphins repeated as champions with a two-year record of 32-2.

Robbie, a former South Dakota legislator and Minneapolis lawyer, parlayed cunning and persistence into shaping one of the most successful sports franchises in America. Since 1970 the Dolphins have the third-best winning percentage (.696) in the NFL and are the only team to win three straight conference titles.

"Firmness of purpose," Lord Chesterfield wrote, "is one of the most necessary sinews of character, and one of the best instruments of success. Without it, genius wastes its efforts in a maze of inconsistencies."

Robbie epitomizes this firm pursuit.

And at 65, Robbie still draws from a seemingly bottomless reservoir of energy. He is vigorously involved in his community, and it was his enlightened opposition to pouring millions of dollars into Orange Bowl improvements that ultimately led to the current push for a new 70,000-seat stadium.

Opponents of a new stadium have decried the exorbitant costs of such a facility but failed to do their homework. Robbie commissioned The McNulty Company in 1976 to prepare plans for a new stadium with chairback seats and adequate parking, and he showed cynics that it could be constructed for $26.5 million exclusive of land costs—half as expensive as the opponents had proclaimed.

Robbie could have borrowed Mark Twain's admonition for journalists: "Get your facts first, and then you can distort 'em as you please."

When that stadium rises in the 1980s, it will be as symbolic of Robbie's persevering character as the gleaming silver Super Bowl trophies.

The unavoidable setback for a 1966 American Football League expansion club never intimidated Robbie. The stadium was two-thirds empty in those first two years when the Dolphins averaged only 25,551 and 27,120 tickets sold.

A four-year ledger read 15 wins in 56 games, a paid average of 28,742 at the ticket counter for 28 games, and off the field, one member of the limited partnership had secretly negotiated a franchise move to Seattle. Robbie swiftly recruited five Miami investors to buy the substantial share held by the recalcitrant partner, and thus the Dolphins became rooted more deeply in Miami.

Once Robbie had survived the financial maelstrom, he still searched for a winner. South Florida had indicated its readiness for pro football when an AFL-record crowd of 68,125 filled the Orange Bowl for a 1968 preseason game with Baltimore. The Dolphins had drafted Griese, Csonka and Stanfill and had traded for Little, Buoniconti and Warfield. On-field leadership was the missing element.

Robbie's genius was manifested when he gave Don Shula the head coaching responsibility Feb. 18, 1970. In the years which have followed, every NFL team except Dallas, Minnesota and Pittsburgh has changed coaches but none of the more than 100 moves has topped Robbie's selection.

Immediately in 1970, the Dolphins were transformed from 3-10-1 underachievers to 10-4 playoff qualifiers. The Dolphins reached the Super Bowl in their sixth year of operation (1971) and linked three consecutive AFC championships (1971-73).

Robbie's faith in once-apathetic South Florida was rewarded with fanatical support. There was an NFL-record 74,961 season tickets in 1973 on the way to 22 straight sellouts (excluding preseason games) while the Dolphins made history with Super Bowl triumphs over Washington and Minnesota.

In the 11 years since Robbie brought Shula to the helm, the Dolphins have averaged 65,500 tickets sold over 85 dates at the Orange Bowl (excluding preseason games).

Of all the plaudits accompanying the ascent of the Dolphins, none fit Robbie's undaunted style more suitably than the Horatio Alger Award given him in 1979. It is an honor bestowed on giants of the free enterprise system in recognition of outstanding careers developed through "personal effort out of hardship."

"If I were asked to name the award that I would cherish most of any I know about," Robbie said in acceptance, "it would be this one. This to me represents struggle and achievement, and through my life, it has always been my opinion that the struggle itself is equally important and rewarding as the ultimate achievement."

The Dolphins, through Robbie's adroit management, have directed more than $1.5 million to charitable organizations in the community that supports the team. Robbie has worked actively on the Board of Trustees for both Jackson Memorial Hospital and the United Way, and he served as president of Catholic Charities for three years.

He also serves on the National Board of Directors of the American Health Foundation and the U.S.O. Other past

DONALD F. SHULA
Head Coach

In profile, his face has a chiseled magnificence. It was carved through 18 years as a National Football League coach—carved as deeply as his commitment to excellence.

The record is there for historians. But your eye interprets Don Shula as he stirs restlessly along the sideline. Exorting all. Deliberating. Instructing. Always pacing. And when he stops—his arms locked across his chest, those eyes powerful as lasers, that anvil of a jaw—he stands as the unshakeable commander.

It is Shula's steel-clad determination, a fervor he instills in every player, that produces consistent winners for the Miami Dolphins.

He will become only the fourth coach in NFL history to win 200 games; he marches into 1981 with a record of 193-78-5. His career winning percentage of .708 is the best among the NFL's all-time 10 winningest coaches, and the perfect 17-0 mark by the 1972 Dolphins remains a monument to Shula. Probably no team will surpass the incredible 32-2 combined record of 1972 and 1973 with two Super Bowl conquests.

Shula was voted Coach of the Decade for the 1970s by the Pro Football Hall of Fame's 25-member selection committee. His uncanny ability to defeat all forms of adversity, and not the weight of championship trophies, tipped the balloting in his favor.

With teams in Baltimore and Miami, Shula has built five unbeaten streaks of 10 or more games, and no other coach has done it more than twice. His 69.6 percent winning in 11 seasons in Miami (120-52-1) parallels his 72.8 percent success in seven years in Baltimore (73-26-4) from 1963 to 1969.

Last winning the AFC East title in 1979, the Dolphins have either won or shared first place in the division eight times in the 11 years under Shula. His Dolphins have been almost invincible at the Orange Bowl with a 69-16 record (81 percent) including an NFL-record 31-game winning streak at home from 1971 to 1974.

Shula, 51, attacks new challenges with the same fundamental tools of organization, preparation and discipline. He drills for precision in every practice, and his methods eliminate errors—the Dolphins have been the least-penalized team in the NFL for five consecutive years.

And behind the intense, steely visage is Shula's abiding respect for his athletes and a warmth that evades the TV cameras along the sidelines.

Shula's approach to football becomes indelibly etched on the character of most players, and it prompted 34-year-old tackle Mike Current to write a 1980 retirement note.

"I would like for you to know how much I appreciate the opportunity to have played for you and the Dolphins over the past three years," Current wrote. "I really felt that those years gave me more insight to actual achievement and the sacrifices required than the 10 years I played previously. Also I truly appreciate the patience and faith you demonstrated in me in the beginning and throughout."

Shula has made a mark on the game as an innovator of defensive complexities and situation substitutions, and he has a reputation as a great motivator. Certainly, other coaches can develop brilliant strategy and deliver rousing speeches at halftime. But Shula surpasses the rest in his skill as a teacher.

"If he'd started in chemistry or mathematics," Dolphin owner Joseph Robbie says of Shula, "I think he'd be the best in the business. He can explain things simply, and then through repetition, transfer his knowledge to people as well as anybody."

Twice with the Dolphins, in 1970 and 1977, Shula has deployed five rookies in his starting defense and won 10 of 14 games each season. And for those exigencies brought on by injuries to his starting quarterback, Shula has solutions. Backup quarterbacks for the Dolphins had a 23-6 record under Shula since 1970.

He cultivates a winning attitude in preseason success which measures 74-21-3 (77 percent) including 32-4-1 at Baltimore and 42-17-2 at Miami.

He had been the youngest head coach, 33, in NFL history when the Colts picked him in 1963 after Shula's three years as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions. In the old NFL, the Colts reached the title game in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, and the 1967 Colts posted an 11-1-2 record. Those three powerhouse teams averaged scoring almost 30 points per game.

Shula's resourcefulness is best documented in 1965 when injuries sidelined Colts quarterbacks John Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, so that halfback Tom Matte wore the "playbook" on his wristband and directed a 20-17 upset at Los Angeles.

He transformed a 3-10-1 Dolphin team into a playoff qualifier his first season in Miami and laid the foundation for a perennial contender. In 1971, the Dolphins won their first of four consecutive AFC East titles, and on Christmas Day in Kansas City, pro football's longest game (82 minutes, 40 seconds) ended with Garo Yepremian's winning 37-yard field goal in the second overtime. A week later, the Dolphins stymied the Unitas-led Colts, 21-0, on the same Poly-Turf where Baltimore had won Super Bowl V the previous January.

Dethroning the Colts launched the Dolphins to three consecutive AFC championships — a feat unequaled in either conference since the 1970 merger. But a disappointing 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI filled Shula and his players with greater drive, and in 1972, the Dolphins attracted headlines as the "Greatest Team Ever."

Shula had claimed 38-year-old Earl Morrall from the waiver list in April 1972, recalling Morrall's leadership of the 1968 Colts. When quarterback Bob Griese suffered a broken ankle in the fifth game, Morrall took charge for 11 straight victories. The Dolphins rewrote the NFL rushing record (2,960 yards), and with a regular-season record of 105-30-5, Shula became the first NFL coach to win 100 games in his first decade.

Surprisingly, the unbeaten Dolphins were three-point underdogs to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. Shula elected to go with a healthy Griese, and the Dolphins dominated the Redskins, 14-7, for the coach's first NFL crown.

Don Shula is approaching 200th career victory in his 19th season.

No less impressive were the 1973 Dolphins, losing only twice in 17 games. The Dolphins set modern NFL record of allowing only 1,290 yards passing and only five touchdown passes, and they overwhelmed three playoff opponents, 85-33, including a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl VIII.

Only twice have Shula's Dolphins failed to win 10 games in a season, and they have qualified for the playoffs seven times in 11 seasons. Only twice have his Dolphins ranked lower than sixth in NFL scoring defense.

"No matter what people are saying, you've got to go out and do it yourself," Shula reminds his players. "You don't win games because you're favored, and you don't lose games because you're the underdog. It's what happens on game day that counts. You've got to think positively and do the things that are necessary to win."

Donald Francis Shula was born January 4, 1930 in Grand River, Ohio, and raised in Painesville, Ohio. He was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950, he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula was the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951 until Shula's college teammate Carl Taseff joined the Browns at midseason. Both were involved in a 15-player trade with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season in Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards.

Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959), and he joined the NFL's Detroit Lions in 1960 under Coach George Wilson—a man he later replaced in Miami. The Lions posted a 26-13-1 record with Shula as the defensive coordinator.

Then in 1963 he succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach at Baltimore, and in the 18 seasons which have followed, Shula has reached the championship game five times with two victories.

Today he takes an active role in NFL leadership, serving the past seven years on the select four-man NFL Competition Committee. Improved safety in pro football has become a major goal for this committee.

"I think there for a while there was the teaching and coaching of intimidation," Shula admits. "I like to see a clean hit as much as the next guy, but I think you can go out and compete just for the desire of winning, more than for physically intimidating the other guy. The players have to realize that they're all in it together."

As consumed as he is by football, Shula remains a devoted family man. He and the former Dorothy Bartish, married July 19, 1958, have five chidren—two boys and three girls—David 22, Donna 20, Sharon 19, Annie 17 and Michael 16.

David Shula, the 1977 salutatorian at Hollywood Chaminade High, broke all pass receiving records at Dartmouth College and played in the 1981 Senior Bowl. In three seasons, the Dartmouth co-captain caught 133 passes for 1,822 yards

"He's never pressured me at all to do anything, whether it was baseball or soccer or football or whatever," David Shula says of his father. "It was always my own initiative. If I was interested in it, then my dad would always say, 'If you want to do it, that's great; but give it your all and don't come out a quitter. You can't always come out a winner, but you can always give it your best.'" services by Robbie include the Board of Govenors of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Directors for United Way, Boystown, Crippled Children's Society and the Heart Association.

His administrative ability was recognized by NFL colleagues when he served on the six-member Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council and he was chairman of the AFL Player Relations Committee.

He was presented the prestigious Timmie Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington in 1974 for the "extraordinary achievement" by the Dolphins over a four-year period (54-11-1) through three Super Bowl appearances. His credits include Pro Football Executive of the Year in 1976 by Pop Warner Junior League Football.

Robbie was the national fund-raising chairman for the Dakota Dome, a $7.2-million arena at his alma mater, the University of South Dakota, which presented him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree in 1979.

He may be the only person ever elected student body president of two colleges—Northern State Teachers College in Aberdeen, S.D., and the University of South Dakota in Vermillion. He founded the South Dakota Student Federation consisting of the student governments of all of South Dakota's colleges and universities, and he served as its president both years he was student body president at Northern and USD.

A gifted extemporaneous speaker, he won the National Discussion Debate championship in Chicago in 1940 and earned his law degree from South Dakota in 1946. His education was interrupted by Navy duty during World War II, and he received the Bronze Star for his part in South Pacific invasions aboard the Rocky Mount.

Robbie was born July 7, 1916 in Sisseton, S.D. He and his wife Elizabeth (married 12-28-42) have raised 11 children. Robbie first practiced law in Mitchell, S.D. (1964-51) when he served as Democratic State Chairman, state legislator and 1950 gubenatorial candidate. His family had grown to six children when he moved to Minneapolis in 1951 to become Regional Counsel for the Office of Price Stabilization, and later he directed a four-state area with 500 employees.

He was a charter member of the Twin Cities Metropolitan Planning Commission, and in what ranks alongside his Super Bowl achievements, he drafted the law which created the Minneapolis Municipal Commission for which he was chairman from 1959 to 1965.

It was then in 1965, after 20 years as a lawyer, that Robbie happened into pro football. A client Robbie met on a Miami Beach vacation was interested in an AFL expansion franchise for Philadelphia. Robbie contacted AFL Commissioner Joe Foss, a former South Dakota classmate and colleague in the legislature.

Robbie and entertainer Danny Thomas, friends since 1959 while serving on the Board of Directors of St. Jude Children's Hospital in Memphis, filed a formal application and were awarded an AFL franchise for $7.5 million. Thomas divested himself of his large stake in the Dolphins in 1967, and by 1969, Robbie had overcome attempts of takeover by partners and had maneuvered into majority ownership.

He has expanded sports in South Florida through his wife Elizabeth, owner of the successful Fort Lauderdale Strikers of the North American Soccer League, and he has drawn his sons Michael, 33, and Tim, 26, into administrative positions with an eye to the future.

J. MICHAEL ROBBIE

Exec. Vice President and General Manager

J. Michael Robbie, a law graduate of the University of South Dakota, has followed the path blazed by his father in the administration of the Miami Dolphins.

Michael has the legal training and business background which have become more essential in modern sports management.

The younger Robbie, 33, is entering his third full season as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Dolphins, a position to which he was named October 11, 1978.

Among his first projects was the implementation of a computer system for all Dolphin operations from ticket accounts to scouting. He gained a working knowledge of the business aspects of pro football in four years in the Dolphins' ticket office, from September 1971 to July 1975, serving as Ticket Director the last two years.

Michael has represented the Dolphins at NFL meetings.

"All of us get a day older every day, so we have to plan for the future of our family," Joseph Robbie says. "I'm pleased that Michael is able to fit himself into the management of the Dolphins and the handling of family affairs. Mike is going to take a leadership role in guiding the younger members of our family."

Michael, the fourth-oldest of 11 Robbie chidren, was born Jan. 6, 1948 in Mitchell, S.D. He was raised in Minneapolis when the family moved there in 1951.

He earned his J.D. and M.B.A. degrees from South Dakota in May 1978, and he was admitted to the South Dakota Bar. He was graduated in 1966 from De LaSalle High in Minneapolis, and he earned his B.S. in mechanical engineering from Notre Dame in 1971.

BOB BRODHEAD
Director of Finances

Bob Brodhead, whose executive skills in football finance were shaped by seven seasons with the Cleveland Browns, returned to the NFL from private industry in 1980 to become Director of Finances for the Dolphins.

Brodhead, the financial advisor to club president Joseph Robbie, conducts the negotiation of player contracts in addition to his extensive duties in budget and financial planning. He will play a significant role in the development of a new stadium for the Dolphins in the 1980s.

Brodhead, 44, served the Browns as business manager from 1967 through 1970 and was promoted to vice president and treasurer in 1971. He left Cleveland prior to the 1974 season and spent six months in Phoenix, Ariz., developing a plan for an NFL expansion franchise for investors there.

In 1975 he became president and general manager of the Portland Thunder of the World Football League, and he even assumed coaching duties (1-1 record) before the league folded in late October. Brodhead returned to Cleveland as the president of Angell Nail Company for five years before accepting the Dolphin position in October 1980.

Brodhead was an outstanding quarterback and three-time Most Valuable Player in the Continental League, playing six seasons (1961-66) and earning all-league honors every year. He guided the Cleveland Bulldogs for three years (1961-63) and moved with the franchise to Canton, Ohio (1964) and Philadelphia (1965-66). The former Duke University quarterback had been drafted by the Browns in 1958 after having led the Blue Devils to an Orange Bowl appearance, and he later applied his B.A. in accounting to a front-office career.

He and his wife Kay (married 4-18-59) live in Boca Raton with their daughters Mindy (1-22-60) and Amy (5-14-63) and their son Jason (6-16-68).

JOE THOMAS
Vice-President

Joe Thomas, who drafted and traded for the talent which produced the Dolphins' championships of the early 1970s, rejoined the Dolphins in 1981 after a nine-year absence.

In his vice-president's capacity, Thomas, 60, will serve as a club liaison with the Greater Miami-Dade Sports Authority in the planning of a new stadium and also conduct public information campaigns to promote football interest.

Thomas has spent 22 years in the National Football League including 19 in personnel and management with four different clubs. He stocked two expansion teams as director of player personnel for Minnesota in 1960 and Miami in 1965—the Vikings were an 8-5-1 success in their fourth season (1964) and the Dolphins reached the Super Bowl in their sixth season (1971).

Ironically, Thomas missed earning a Super Bowl ring while the players he assembled had a ring on each hand—trade acquisitions Larry Little, Nick Buoniconti and Paul Warfield and draftees Bob Griese, Larry Csonka, Dick Anderson, Jim Kiick, Bill Stanfill and Jake Scott, to name a few.

Thomas had been the Dolphins' first employee, hired Sept. 21, 1965, four months before the American Football League expansion draft. He left Miami in February 1972 following the draft to pursue greater job responsibilities, and five months later, he was named vice president and general manager of the Baltimore Colts.

He orchestrated a trade for a first-round pick in 1973 and spent it for quarterback Bert Jones—a move which ultimately resulted in three consecutive AFC East titles (1975-77) for the Colts.

Thomas' last assignment was vice-president and general manager of the San Francisco 49ers for two seasons (1977-78).

Thomas, an end at Ohio Northern and 1943 graduate, spent six years in college coaching at DePauw (1948-51) and Indiana (1952-53) and earned a master's in education at Indiana. He gained three years of NFL experience as a defensive coach at Baltimore (1954) and Los Angeles (1955-56) and then three years with the Toronto Argonauts (1957-59) of the Canadian Football League before joining the Vikings in April 1960.

He and his wife Judi have an 11-year-old daughter, Paige.

"DOLPHINS" WON,

FLIPPERS DOWN

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns—none of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonderment for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures in the sea," Joseph Robbie said in announcing the team name Oct. 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphin games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame—it ended a scoreless tie.

BILL ARNSPARGER

Asst. Head Coach, Defense

18th NFL Season, 10th with Dolphins

Born Dec. 16, 1926

Bill Arnsparger has devised the strategies which have kept the Dolphins among pro football's most respected defenses.

In his eight full seasons with the Dolphins (1970-73 and 1977-80), Arnsparger has crafted a defense which has allowed the fewest points in the National Football League. Under his guidance, the Dolphins have yielded 225 fewer points than Pittsburgh and 380 fewer points than all other AFC teams in those eight years. Miami has finished first or second in AFC scoring defense six times.

Arnsparger, 54, molded a disciplined defense which had five rookies named to the NFL All-Rookie team in 1977 and nine times didn't allow a touchdown in 1978 and 1979 on the way to the playoffs. He earned the game ball in Super Bowl VIII after the 1973 club permitted only 150 points and set modern NFL records of 1,290 yards passing and five TD passes. That team linked 13 consecutive scoreless quarters.

His association with Coach Don Shula goes back to 1959 as aides at Kentucky, then 1964-69 at Baltimore and 1970-73 at Miami. Three times in those 10 seasons, Arnsparger's charges led the NFL in scoring defense.

He was head coach of the New York Giants for 2½ seasons beginning in 1974 and he rejoined the Dolphins at midseason 1976. He worked 14 years in college coaching—Miami, Ohio (1950), Ohio State (1951-53), Kentucky (1954-61) and Tulane (1962-63).

Arnsparger was a high school lineman at Paris, Ky., under Blanton Collier, later the head coach (1963-70) of the Cleveland Browns. Arnsparger spent two years as a Marine sergeant before returning to Miami (Ohio) as an offensive tackle under Woody Hayes. In 1976 he was inducted into the Miami University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Currently he is chairman of the 20-member Governor's Sports Council in Florida. He and his wife Betty Jane (married 8-24-57) live in Miami Lakes with their son David (8-6-65) and daughter Mary Susan (2-29-68).

WALLY ENGLISH

QBs, Receivers, Passing Game

4th NFL Season, 1st with Dolphins

Born June 28, 1938

Wally English, whose 15-year coaching career includes three years with Detroit Lions and service at six major colleges, joined the Dolphins in 1981 to take charge of quarterbacks, receivers and the passing game.

For the past two seasons, English was the offensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh. The Panthers put together consecutive 11-1 records and, in 1980, ranked second in the nation after routing South Carolina, 37-9, in the Gator Bowl.

English's high-powered passing game, directed by Pitt quarterbacks Dan Marino and Rick Trocano, broke school records both years. The Panthers averaged 268 yards passing (fifth in nation) in 1980 and 31 points per game while amassing a record 4,920 yards total offense.

English, 41, has three years of NFL coaching experience as the offensive backfield coach with the Lions in 1974, 1975 and 1977. He then coached quarterback Marc Wilson at Brigham Young in 1978.

The former University of Louisville quarterback (1956-58) was the successor to John Unitas at his alma mater. English began coaching on the college level as quarterback coach at Kentucky (1956-68) and spent one year (1969) as a scout and coach for Richmond, Va., in the Continental League. He moved to Arkansas (1970), then Virginia Tech (1971-72) and Nebraska (1973). VPI's Don Strock led the nation in passing in 1972 and was drafted by the Dolphins in 1973.

English is only the second Dolphin assistant coach to be hired from the college ranks. Offensive backfield coach John Idzik (1966-69) came to Miami from Tulane University.

English and his wife Peggy (married 7-25-59) live in Davie with their five sons—Jon (9-24-60), Steve (11-12-61), Danny (6-9-64), Tommy (8-6-67) and infant Andrew (3-26-81). Jon is a sophomore quarterback at Iowa State and Steve is a sophomore defensive back at Indiana.

TOM KEANE

Defensive Backs, Punting

18th NFL Season, 16th with Dolphins

Born Sept. 7, 1926

Tom Keane, whose guidance of the Dolphin secondary spans the club's entire 16-year history, developed a ball-hawking bunch that included three new starters in 1980.

It was the youngest group Keane ever directed, even younger than the 1966 expansion team, and cornerbacks Gerald Small and Don McNeal led a haul of 28 interceptions. McNeal progressed rapidly to earn NFL All-Rookie honors, and it marked the first time that Keane had had the luxury of a first-round draftee.

Keane, 55, is one of only three current NFL assistants who have coached with the same club as long as 16 years—Jim Myers (1962-81) and Ernie Stautner (1966-81) of Dallas are the others. The Dolphins have averaged 23 interceptions per year (351) topped by an NFL-leading 32 thefts in 1978.

In Keane's first year, the Dolphins stole 31 passes and ranked second in the American Football League. In 1973 the Super Bowl champions allowed only five touchdown passes.

Keane, a former All-Pro safety for the Baltimore Colts in 1953, holds the Colts record with 11 interceptions that season. He had swiped 10 passes in 1952. He also averaged 42.8 yards punting and he held the ball for Bert Rechichar's 56-yard field goal which stood as an NFL record for 17 years.

He was a freshman quarterback and tailback for unbeaten Ohio State in 1944, and after a 20-month stint as a seaman in the South Pacific, Keane played at West Virginia. He skipped his senior year to be drafted by Los Angeles (1948-51), then was traded to the short-lived Dallas Texans (1952) and went to Baltimore (1953-54) in the franchise move.

Keane played with the Chicago Cardinals (1955) and his career ended with a knee injury suffered while tackling Tank Younger in a 1956 preseason game. He coached with the Cardinals (1957) and the Calgary Stampeders (1960) of the Canadian Football League.

In 1961 he became head coach of the Wheeling Ironmen of the United Football League, and after winning two championships, he moved to Pittsburgh (1965) as an assistant.

He and his wife Mary (married 7-5-52) live in Miami and have two daughters, Candi and Mary, and two sons, Tom and Tim.

JOHN SANDUSKY

Offensive Line, Running Game

23rd NFL Season, 6th with Dolphins

Born Dec. 28, 1925

John Sandusky has applied his immense knowledge of battle in the trenches and has rebuilt the Dolphin offensive line.

His teaching patience and thoroughness are not diminished by 30 years in the NFL including 23 years of coaching—five more than any other Miami assistant.

Sandusky solidified the blocking front in 1980 by blending young tackles Eric Laakso and Jon Giesler and center Mark Dennard with veteran guards Bob Kuechenberg and Ed Newman. The Dolphins led the NFL in rushing in the 1970s, averaging 2,372 yards per season.

Sandusky, 55, has the unique distinction of having served in four different capacities in the old College All-Star Game in Chicago. He played with the All-Stars (1950) and coached them (offensive line, 1958); he played with the NFL champions (Cleveland, 1951 and 1955) and coached them (Baltimore offensive line, 1969, and defensive line, 1971).

He was the offensive line coach under Don Shula for seven years (1963-69) with Baltimore. In fact, Shula tried to bring Sandusky to Miami in 1970 but the Colts' coaching staff was restricted. Sandusky stayed with the Colts to coach the defensive line (1970-72) with a Super Bowl V victory under Don McCafferty.

Sandusky's first NFL assignment had been the Colts' defensive line (1959-62) under Weeb Ewbank, so he has spent seven years on defense and 16 years on offense.

When McCafferty was fired after a 1-4 start in 1972, Sandusky was elevated to head coach. He posted a 4-5 record including two losses to the unbeaten Dolphins. Sandusky next spent three years (1973-75) with the Philadelphia Eagles' offensive line.

That was a homecoming for the former All-American tackle from Villanova. He went both ways at tackle for Cleveland (1950-55) when the Browns played in six consecutive NFL championship games, winning three titles, and he spent one year with Green Bay (1956). He began his coaching career as a Villanova assistant (1957-58).

He and his wife Ruth (married 3-31-51) live in Cooper City, and they have raised four sons and a daughter—John, James, Ruth, Joey and Gerry. Joey died of complications from pneumonia in 1978 while a sophomore at Tulsa University. Youngest son Gerry, a junior at Towson State, plays tight end for the Tigers.

MIKE SCARRY

Defensive Line, Run Defense

15th NFL Season, 12th with Dolphins

Born Feb. 1, 1920

Mike Scarry, whose coaching career has spanned five decades, has molded Miami's defensive line since 1970 and produced a consistently strong run defense. In seven of those 11 seasons, the Dolphins have ranked eighth or better in NFL run defense.

Scarry's defenders put a stranglehold on opponents in 1979, holding nine foes under 100 yards rushing and ranking second in the NFL with a 106.4-yard average yield. The previous highest ranking was third in 1972 with a 110.6-yard average.

The Dolphins have topped 40 quarterback sacks three times under Scarry—45 in 1973, 40 in 1975 and 41 in 1978. Miami also led the NFL with 14 shutouts during the 1970s.

Scarry, 61, was elected to the NAIA Hall of Fame in 1964 in recognition of his playing days as a center and linebacker at Waynesburg (Pa.) College. He played the first game ever televised (Waynesburg vs. Fordham in New York, 1939). After two years in the Army, "Moe" was center for the Cleveland Rams (1944-45) in the old All-American Football Conference.

He began an 18-year college coaching career at Western Reserve (1948-49) and moved to Santa Clara (1950-52), Loras (1953), Washington State (1954-55) and Cincinnati (1956-62) before becoming head coach at Waynesburg (1963-65). His Yellow Jackets posted a record of 17-8-1 including two West Penn Conference titles, and he recruited and developed the Waynesburg squad which went unbeaten and won the NAIA championship in 1966.

Scarry moved into the pro ranks with the Washington Redskins (1966-68) under Otto Graham and he spent the 1969 season as a scout for San Francisco before joining the Dolphins in 1970.

In 1969 he was named to the Waynesburg College Hall of Fame for both football and basketball.

He and his wife Elizabeth (married 1-27-43) live in Miami and have eight children, five boys and three girls—Sally Beth, Mike, Patricia, Tom, Maggie, John, Jim and Dennis

Don Shula on his sideline deportment

I think I've quieted down some as I've gotten more experience. But I'm still very involved and very emotional. . . I want to do the things that brought me this far. You put so much into it; it's natural that it comes out. I'd rather have it come out than be sitting here with ulcers.

CARL TASEFF

Offensive Backs,
Special Teams

15th NFL Season, 12th with Dolphins

Born Sept. 28, 1928

Carl Taseff, whose Dolphin running backs led the NFL in rushing during the 1970s, has a stable of talented prospects to be groomed for 1981.

His guidance of third-year pros Tony Nathan and Woody Bennett and rookie Andra Franklin will be crucial to reviving the Dolphin offense.

Taseff has coached nine different Dolphin running backs who have gained more than 500 yards in a season, and in the eight seasons from 1970 to 1977, the Dolphins ranked fifth or higher in NFL rushing seven times.

Taseff, 53, scouted Dolphin opponents for three years (1970-72) in addition to his coaching duties. Prior to joining Coach Don Shula's staff, he worked for the CEPO scouting combine in 1968 and 1969.

He had played nine years (1953-61) as left cornerback for the Baltimore Colts, and Taseff set Colts records with a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown Oct. 14, 1956 against Green Bay (four returns for 148 yards). He holds an NFL record with a 99-yard return of a Walt Michaels field-goal attempt Dec. 12, 1959 against Los Angeles. His career marks were 112 punt returns for 826 yards, and he never fumbled a punt.

Taseff starred as as running back at John Carroll University in his native Cleveland and he scored 22 touchdowns in 1950. He and Shula played in the same backfield for Coach Herb Eisele, and they were roommates with the Cleveland Browns (1951-52) and Colts (1953-56).

He concluded his pro career in 1962 with Buffalo of the American Football League, and after a year in the insurance field, he became a defensive coach with the AFL Boston Patriots (1964) and the NFL Detroit Lions (1965-66) under Harry Gilmer.

Taseff and his wife Lucille (married 11-18-78) live in Pembroke Pines. He has two daughters, Cynthia Sue and Susan, by a previous marriage.

CHARLEY WINNER

Dir. of Pro Personnel and Assistant Coach

27th NFL Season, 1st with Dolphins

Born July 3, 1925

Charley Winner, a veteran of 26 years in the National Football League including two assignments as a head coach, joined the Dolphins in July 1981 as the Director of Pro Personnel. He will do scouting reports on Dolphin opponents and analyze NFL talent in waiver and trade procedures.

Winner, 56, once coached a defensive back named Shula in the mid-1950s at Baltimore. That was the beginning of Winner's 12-year stint (1954-65) as a defensive coach with the Colts, serving under Weeb Ewbank for nine years and under Don Shula for three years.

Winner became head coach at St. Louis (1966-70) where he developed quarterback Jim Hart and had a 1966 defense which set club records which have stood for 15 years—most quarterback sacks (52) and fewest yards rushing (85.1 yards per game). The Cardinals were 35-30 in those five seasons but lost the last three games in 1970 to finish 8-5-1.

He was an assistant at Washington (1971-72) under George Allen and at the New York Jets (1973) under his father-in-law Ewbank before being promoted to head coach. The Jets were 7-7 in 1974 and 2-7 in 1975 under Winner. He coached defensive backs at Cincinnati (1976-79) and worked for a cable TV firm in 1980.

Winner, a radio operator and gunner in the Air Force during World War II, was a halfback at Washington University in St. Louis and graduated in 1949. Before joining Ewbank at Baltimore in 1954, he was aide at Washington (1948-49) and Case Tech (1950-53).

He and his wife Nancy (married 6-23-50) have two daughters, Cinda and Lisa.

CHUCK CONNOR

Director of Player Personnel

4th Season with Dolphins

Born July 7, 1937

Chuck Connor has developed a reputation as an astute judge of talent while supervising four Dolphin drafts as Director of Player Personnel since 1978.

Altogether 22 players from Connor's first three drafts are still in the Dolphin fold. Those drafts succeeded in rebuilding the defensive secondary and the offensive line, and in 1980, tapping quarterback David Woodley, who became the first rookie since Bob Griese in 1967 to earn the team's Most Valuable Player award.

Connor selected 15 players in the first four rounds from 1978 to 1980, and 13 are playing in the NFL (12 with Miami), yet Miami's drafting position was 24th, 24th and 21st those three years.

Connor, 44, succeeded Bobby Beathard in 1978 after serving as the Southeast regional scout for the BLESTO combine, which provides college player evaluations for nine NFL teams including the Dolphins. Connor had worked three seasons (1975-77) for BLESTO and was promoted to one of their four regional scout positions in 1977.

He was a two-way end at the University of Cincinnati (1955-59) before he began a 15-year coaching career at Montour High near Pittsburgh. Connor was head coach for eight of those 15 years, and his 1967 team was undefeated. He taught at Montour in 1974 while also coaching the defensive secondary at Carnegie-Mellon University.

Connor had done player evaluations from films for the Pittsburgh Steelers while at Montour, and in 1975, he moved his family from McKees Rock, Pa., to Stone Mountain, Ga., near Atlanta to work for BLESTO.

He and his wife Dorothy (married 6-27-59) have four children—Chuck (4-23-60), Mike (1-16-65), Karen (6-20-66) and Scott (7-29-76).

STEVE CROSBY

Asst. Dir. of Player Personnel and Asst. Coach, Special Teams

5th Season with Dolphins

Born July 3, 1950

Steve Crosby has directed the Dolphins' special teams for the past two seasons in addition to his offseason duties in college scouting.

The Dolphins, who haven't had a punt or kickoff returned for a touchdown since 1975, won three games in 1980 when special teams gave the spark.

Under Crosby, the Dolphins ranks second in the AFC in punt coverage (7.0-yard return average) for the last two years. The Dolphins were second in the NFL in punt coverage in 1979 with a meager 5.2-yard return allowed.

Crosby, whose career as a New York Giants running back was shortened by injuries, began scouting for the Dolphins in 1977 and soon became the top assistant to Chuck Connor.

Crosby, 31, was a 17th-round draft choice when the Giants picked him in 1974. He appeared in 15 games in three injury-plagued seasons (1974-76) under Bill Arnsparger. He had gained 1,891 yards in two seasons at Fort Hays College in his native Kansas. Crosby played eight-man football in his home-town Pawnee Rock.

He and his wife Ellen (married 6-27-69) and their son Bradley (10-19-70) live in Plantation.

BOB LUNDY

Trainer

15th Season with Dolphins

Born March 28, 1936

Bob Lundy, the original trainer of the Dolphins, has treated injured players for 14 seasons with his assortment of bandages and braces.

A significant reduction in knee injuries has coincided with a vigorous offseason conditioning program organized by Lundy along with pre-practice flexibility drills. In a four-year period from 1975 to 1978, the Dolphins counted 32 knee operations. Now with a winter regimen of weight training and running, the Dolphins lost only one player in 1979 and two in 1980 to knee surgery.

Lundy, 45, was honored for having mended football wounds when the Dolphins presented him with a game ball after clinching a fourth consecutive AFC East championship in 1974. It may be the only time an NFL trainer has been honored that way.

He came to Miami with the formation of the franchise and has worked every season except 1973 when he sold real estate. He graduated from Boston University in 1958 and was the assistant trainer at Indiana University while in graduate school. He became the head trainer at Detroit University (1960-63) while also serving as assistant trainer of the NFL's Detroit Lions, and in 1964, he became a full-time assistant with the Lions.

He and his wife Alice (married 6-2-62) live in Miami with their three sons Bobby (3-30-63), Billy (6-30-66) and David (1-30-70).

JUNIOR WADE

Assistant Trainer

7th Season with Dolphins

Born Feb. 2, 1947

Junior Wade provides much more than medical treatment as the assistant trainer of the Dolphins. He boosts the morale of injured players by putting himself through the same paces of running and weightlifting during rehabilitation.

Wade consequently has become as superbly conditioned as many of the athletes he directs on the Dolphins' weight machines. More than 20 players participated in the 1981 off-season workouts under Wade and head trainer Bob Lundy.

Wade, 34, joined the Dolphins in 1975 after coaching Davidson College to its best baseball record (21-15) in history. Wade's team owned a victory over 1975 College World Series runnerup South Carolina.

He had worked in Dolphin preseason camps in 1973 and 1974 while he served as an assistant trainer at Davidson. He was promoted to head baseball coach in 1975.

Wade was a three-year baseball letterman at South Carolina State. After earning a master's degree in education, he became trainer and guidance counselor at Fayetteville State

He and his wife Constance (married 12-13-70) live in Hialeah with their son Aaron (2-25-72).

DAN DOWE

Equipment Manager

16th Season with Dolphins

Born Sept. 16, 1924

Dan Dowe has been fitting uniforms, customizing helmets and packing trunks of equipment for the Dolphins since the team's inception in 1966. He started as the assistant equipment manager and was promoted to equipment manager in 1969.

His locker-room pranks are legend among Dolphin veterans and a rude awakening among rookies. But it is beloved mischief, and fans and players past and present all turned out to roast

Dowe at a 1978 banquet.

Dowe, 57, is a native of Brighton, Mass. He served 4½ years aboard the destroyer USS Forest in World War II, and the ship was hit by a kamikaze plane. As a civilian he worked in industrial electronics in Boston and then as a police officer in Bal Harbour, a Miami Beach suburb.

He and his wife Virginia (married 6-8-57) live in Hollywood Hills with their son Darin (9-14-69).

MILT DAVIS

College Area Scout

4th Season with Dolphins

Born May 31, 1929

Milt Davis, an educator as well as a talent scout, has been evaluating college players in a 14-state West region since 1967. He scouted for Baltimore from 1967 to 1976, for Los Angeles in 1977 and for the Dolphins since 1978.

Davis, 52, who has received his doctorate in administrative education from UCLA, is a counselor and biology professor at Los Angeles City College. He earned an M.A. in zoology from UCLA and is an avid bird-watcher.

Davis played four seasons (1957-60) with the Colts and twice tied for the NFL lead in interceptions, including 10 as a rookie. The Colts defeated the New York Giants twice in title games (1958 and 1959) with Davis at right cornerback, and he had 27 career interceptions.

He and his wife Yvonne live in Los Angeles with their three children Allison (2-19-59) and twins Brian and Hilary (5-21-62).

ELBERT DUBENION

College Area Scout

3rd Season with Dolphins

Born Feb. 16, 1935

Elbert Dubenion, an American Football League original with the Buffalo Bills in 1960, joined the Dolphins' scouting staff after the 1979 draft. His basic responsibility has been the northern tier of states including the Big Ten and the Big Eight.

Dubenion, 46, nicknamed "Golden Wheels" as the swift flanker in a nine-year career with Buffalo, retired during the 1968 season and devoted the next 10 years to scouting for the Bills.

He possesses Buffalo career receiving records with 296 receptions, 5,304 yards and 35 touchdowns. He also set marks with receptions in 42 consecutive games and TDs in five straight games. In 1964 he grabbed 42 passes for 1,139 yards and 10 touchdowns with quarterback Jack Kemp, and the Bills captured the AFL title.

He and his wife Marilyn (married 6-8-59) live in Westerville, Ohio, near Columbus, with their four daughters—Debbie (3-1-61), Carol (1-8-63), Susan (10-8-65) and Lisa (2-16-67).

'81 Prospects

By BOB KEARNEY
Public Relations Director

Griese, Csonka, Langer and Little—you won't find them in the same huddle again until the mid-1980s, and then only as bronze busts at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. They had shared the Super Bowl glory of 1972 and 1973 and even a last hurrah in 1979 with a fifth AFC East championship for the Miami Dolphins.

All four of those All-Pros were gone by October 1980 along with safety Tim Foley, the biggest heart in a maturing defense.

In 1980, the torch was passed.

Coach Don Shula remains optimistic that the young battlers drafted in the last four years can replace the "body" of former stars. But Shula, entering his 12th season with the Dolphins, wonders whether the "soul" can be revived.

"We have to develop new leadership," Shula says, "but it's something you can't designate. You can't tell a player he's going to be the leader. It has to be a natural thing, someone who really gives effort on and off the field, someone who really prepares and plays recklessly during a game. Then other players will feel that's the kind of player they want to be."

The Dolphins' sag to 8-8 last season, which left Miami three games behind the 11-5 clubs in the AFC playoffs, may be attributable to the pains of growth, not deterioration. How many teams can regenerate three offensive linemen, three defensive backs and a rookie quarterback without at least a sag?

That the Dolphins avoided a collapse was another tribute to Shula, voted the NFL's Coach of the Decade for the 1970s. Shula, 51, has molded an 18-year record of 193-78-5 and his teams have had five unbeaten streaks of 10 or more games. His career winning percentage of .708 is best among the NFL's winningest coaches of all time.

Shula, now 120-52-1 in 11 seasons in Miami, has only two holdovers from the Super Bowl performers—guard Bob Kuechenberg and defensive end Vern Den Herder. The new blood is represented by 22 draftees from the 1978-80 period including a poised, resourceful young quarterback.

Analyzing the Dolphins by position:

QUARTERBACKS—The biggest surprise in the NFL in 1980 was the meteoric rise of rookie quarterback David Woodley, who started the Dolphins' final 10 games. He gained a split decision in the won-loss column (5-5) and near-unanimous agreement that he could jolt the Dolphins' offense into racing form.

Woodley, only two weeks after his 22nd birthday, fashioned one of the biggest upsets in Dolphin history with a 35-14 thrashing of Los Angeles. Woodley passed for three touchdowns and scrambled for two other TDs against a Rams defense which put five players in the Pro Bowl.

In his last seven starts, beginning with the triumph over the Rams, Woodley completed 55.6 percent of his passes (115 of 207) with 12 touchdowns and only seven interceptions. His interception rate of 3.38 percent rivaled the best in the NFL.

"I firmly believe that in this day of highly sophisticated coverages and pass rushers who are bigger, stronger and faster than ever before, mobility becomes more and more important for a quarterback," Shula says. "Woodley has this mobility, combined with an extraordinary coolness under fire.

"Unquestionably, he still has a lot to learn. But you're working with a young man who has great intelligence to go along with his physical gifts."

With the June 25 retirement of Bob Griese, the Dolphins can turn to 30-year-old Don Strock for veteran help. Strock has a powerful arm and a thorough command of the Dolphin

IN MEMORIAM:

Football talent scouts can measure speed, size and strength. Had they found a way to measure heart, they wouldn't have overlooked Rusty Chambers in the 1975 draft.

Rusty Chambers, a quiet Southerner with a fierceness reserved only for his linebacking duties, led the Dolphins in tackles in both 1978 and 1979. He started 42 consecutive games and had the look of one who always belonged. He was the only defensive starter the Dolphins ever acquired through waivers.

So it was a stunning loss for the coaches, teammates, fans and friends of Russell Francis Chambers when he was killed in an automobile accident July 1. 1981 in Hammond, La., at the age of 27. We grieve with his family and his widow, Jackie, and we dedicate this book to his memory.

offense, and he holds a 10-6 career record for games in which he has been involved in the decision.

The competition for No. 3 quarterback should be interesting. Pete Woods, a 1978 draftee of Kansas City, has been luckless with four teams but impressive in workouts with the Dolphins. The 1981 draft produced two sprint-out quarterbacks, Brad Wright of New Mexico (fourth round) and Jim Jensen of Boston University (11th round).

RUNNING BACKS—A precipitous dropoff in the running attack (330 fewer yards and 10 fewer TDs rushing in 1980) compelled the Dolphins to use their top two 1981 draft choices for running backs. Soon it was second-and-10 with the sudden departure of No. 1 choice David Overstreet of Oklahoma, who opted for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League.

But the Dolphins don't figure to punt if third-year pros like Tony Nathan, Woody Bennett and Steve Howell continue to improve. Two draftees, fullback Andra Franklin of Nebraska (second round) and halfback Tommy Vigorito of Virginia (fifth round), make an intriguing entry as rookies.

Nathan's credentials were boosted in the 1980 finale with his first extensive assignment—18 carries for 97 yards. The elusive Alabaman paced Dolphin receivers with 57 catches for 588 yards and five touchdowns, shattering a club record for a running back. His nemesis has been the fumble, 17 of them in his first two seasons.

"Tony makes things happen," Shula points out, "and we're going to work hard to have him avoid the costly fumble or dropped ball and just try to emphasize the positive things he can do."

Bennett, an explosive 227-pound fullback picked up on waivers in November, promptly started three games and averaged 4.3 yards per carry. Bennett must fend the challenges of Howell (206 yards) and Terry Robiskie (250 yards), both powerful inside runners. Robiskie slammed 84 yards in a triumph over Buffalo, the NFL's total defense leader.

A valuable utility player, Nick Giaquinto, contributed 24 pass receptions for 192 yards as a rookie in 1980.

OFFENSIVE LINE—One encouraging aspect of an offense which ranked 26th in the league in 1980 was the formation of a cohesive offensive line. The Dolphins averaged 151 yards rushing and 332 yards in total offense for the final seven games, and those are Top 10 numbers.

Left guard Bob Kuechenberg, a four-time Pro Bowl selection, should surpass all Dolphin records for longevity in his 12th season. He needs only nine starts and 12 games to edge ahead of Little (164) and Griese (172) in those categories. Ed Newman moved to right guard in 1980 and proved an able successor to Little.

The Dolphins solidified their line last October when left tackle Jon Giesler, the No. 1 draftee in 1979, recovered from a shoulder separation and started the final 10 games. Eric Laakso made impressive strides at right tackle, and gritty Mark . Dennard anchored the unit at center.

"It gives us a feeling of stability in 1981," Shula says. "With the exception of Kuechenberg, we've got young starters and five people ready to challenge."

Miami's offensive line led the NFL with the fewest holding calls (16) in 1980.

RECEIVERS—With only 95 completions to the wide receivers (six per game) in 1980, the Dolphins utilized a ball-control passing game. Running backs caught 133 passes, up from 87 and 101 receptions the previous two seasons.

In flanker Nat Moore and split end Duriel Harris the Dolphins have a proven tandem which can wreak havoc upon the stiffest defenses. Moore has established club records in seven seasons with 305 catches for 4,750 yards (15.6-yard average) and 45 touchdowns. He caught a TD pass in six of Miami's eight victories last season.

Harris, who missed four games in 1980 with a torn hamstring, has exceeded 3,000 yards in five seasons and will move on all-time Dolphin chart toward the No. 2 spot held by Paul Warfield. He brings big-play electricity to offense with a career average of 17.1 yards per catch.

And Shula stresses, "We've got to get back to an emphasis on coming down with all the balls that are catchable and making the big plays. Dropped passes kept us from maintaining possession at crucial times in 1980."

Capable reinforcements include fourth-year pro Jimmy Cefalo and 1980 rookie Elmer Bailey. Both contributed important catches in December triumphs. The addition of fourth-round draftee Sam Greene of Nevada/Las Vegas will put more speed in the Dolphins passing game.

Again there will be an intense rivalry at tight end with "three different talents competing for the No. 1 job," Shula says. Ronnie Lee, a rugged 235-pounder, excells as a blocker; Bruce Hardy has veteran savvy as a blocker and receiver, and 1980 rookie Joe Rose impresses as a receiver. Dolphin tight ends have combined for 38, 32 and 39 receptions over the past three seasons.

DEFENSIVE LINE—In an effort to strengthen the Dolphins' pass rush, Shula will switch former Pro Bowl linebacker Kim Bokamper to full-time duty at defensive end in 1981. Bokamper's great quickness should create problems for blockers; he has played extensively in a down-lineman position on passing situations, and in 1978, he collared quarterbacks 10 times.

The Dolphins slipped from second to 15th in NFL rankings for rushing defense in 1980 while managing only 27 quarterback sacks. Shula believes those shortcomings can be eliminated through teamwork.

"We need much better coordination between our defensive line and linebackers in order for our defense to reach the heights of a playoff contender," the coach says.

Nose tackle Bob Baumhower has anchored the Dolphins' line for four seasons and 64 consecutive starts, and he led the team in tackles with 135 stops last season. He will be flanked by right end Bokamper and left end Doug Betters, a fourth-year pro with enormous potential.

Defensive end Vern Den Herder, who has played and started more games (155/138) than any defensive player in Dolphin history, will brace the rushing defense in his 11th season. Baumhower is supported by veteran Carl Barisich while 1980 rookie Bill Barnett and rookie Ken Poole, a fifth-round draftee from Northeast Louisiana, could be factors at defensive end in the pass rush.

LINEBACKERS—Major shuffling of the linebacking corps in 1981 may be the key to restoring the Dolphins among NFL leaders on defense. No opponents in 1980 topped 200 yards rushing, but the Dolphins allowed 157.4 yards per game in their eight defeats.

In 1981, the Dolphins could start an intimidating a row of four first-round draft choices at linebacker. On the outside, quick-hitting Larry Gordon (Miami, 1976) and Bob Brudzinski (Los Angeles, 1977) cast an imposing presence. Inside, A.J. Duhe (Miami, 1977) made a successful transition from defensive end a year ago and free agent Thomas Henderson (Dallas, 1975) has determination to make a new beginning in Miami.

Gordon and Brudzinski are both All-Pro candidates. Gordon has averaged 113 tackles in his five seasons, missing only three starts. Brudzinski, acquired in an April 28 trade with Los Angeles, started 31 consecutive games while the Rams led the NFL in total defense in 1978 and won the National Conference title in 1979.

Duhe should assert himself in 1981 now that he is more comfortable with his assignments. The other inside position will be contested between Henderson, who has bounced to three teams in the last year, and sixth-year pro Earnie Rhone and 1980 rookie Steve Shull. Both Rhone and Shull entered the NFL as longshot free agents, and Rhone has been a mainstay in the Dolphins' pass defense.

DEFENSIVE BACKS—Little fanfare accompanied the revamping of the Dolphins' secondary in 1980, yet a precocious group emerged ready to challenge the NFL's best passing attacks.

The key was left cornerback Don McNeal, the first defensive back drafted No. 1 by the Dolphins. McNeal and fourth-year pro Gerald Small give the Dolphins two very swift and reliable cornerbacks, and safeties Glenn Blackwood and Don Bessillieu have the toughness and quick reactions for an effective deterrent to the long pass.

"McNeal lived up to all expectations," Shula says. "He has it all—size, speed, quickness—and he's tough against the run. A rare combination for a cornerback.

"Small has been a big-play man for us (10 of his 16 career interceptions have occurred inside the Dolphin 10-yard line)," Shula adds. "In Bessillieu and Blackwood, we have two fierce hitters who are always around the ball."

Quality depth exists with seventh-year pro Ed Taylor and 1980 rookie Jeff Allen at cornerbacks and sixth-year man Doug Beaudoin at safety and draftees Fulton Walker of West Virginia and William Judson of South Carolina State are vying at cornerback.

KICKERS—Left-footed punter George Roberts set a Dolphin record by averaging 42.6 yards on 77 punts last season, ranking fourth in the NFL. A training-camp challenger will be rookie Tom Orosz, a free agent from Ohio State.

Placekicker Uwe von Schamann booted three game-winning field goals in 1980, and he brings a streak of 52 consecutive conversion into 1981.

FINAL TRIBUTE
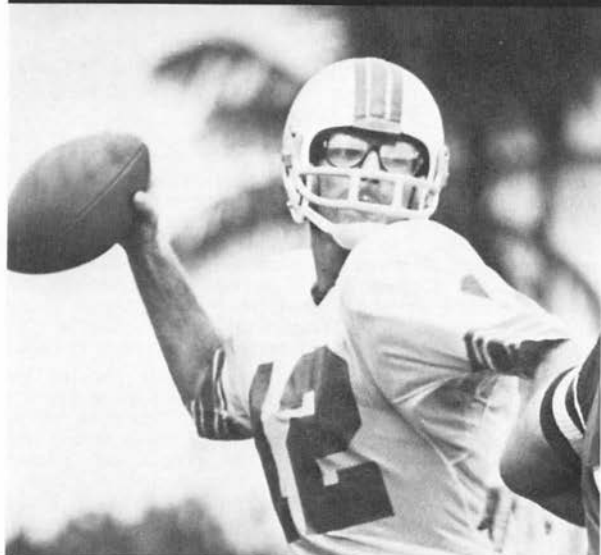

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, had sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning since 1967.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980, and on the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement June 25, 1981.

He had presided over 101 of the 135 wins in Dolphin history (101-62-3) and had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin owner Joseph Robbie called him. He was consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in Pro Bowl and has been voted team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula says. "He gets as much thrill call the right running play for a touchdown as he does connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

Guard Bob Kuechenberg on 280 yards rushing in 1980 victory at Los Angeles

You don't build an offensive line overnight. With the exception of your quarterback, building a cohesive offensive line probably takes more time than any other phase of your game . . . This has got to be a springboard for us. If everybody on this football team gets a very clear mental image of the feeling they have right now, then there should be a noticeable difference in our play.

5-9, 188   Florida
8th Year   (D3, 1974)
Born Sept. 19, 1951

A firefly with his blinking-quick moves, he has beaten defenders for 35 touchdown catches in the past four seasons and has rewritten all Dolphin career receiving records . . . his elusiveness and safecracker hands have earned a reputation as one of pro football's most reliable receivers on possession downs . . . he should surpass 5,000 career receiving yards in 1981, and his records could endure another decade . . . an All-Pro in 1977 when he led the league with 12 TD catches, he has averaged almost 50 catches per season since 1977 . . . he transcends all superstar receivers in his tenacious blocking . . . he paced Dolphin receivers for six consecutive years (1974-79) and has amassed 305 catches for 4,750 yards (15.6-yard average) and 45 TDs, all club records . . . three times he has had back-to-back 100-yard games—he has nine of them, three fewer than Paul Warfield (1970-74) . . . he tapered off to a career-low 564 yards in 1980 but was ever-dangerous at the goal line with seven TDs . . . he alertly snared end-zone ricochet for 8-yard TD that forced overtime in 1980 upset of New England . . . he caught a TD pass in six of Dolphins' eight victories in 1980, and his 33-yard reception set up winning field goal at Atlanta . . . he earned All-NFL honors from Associated Press and Pro Football Writers in 1977 and All-AFC recognition from three other selectors . . . his most memorable performance was three-TD spectacular Sept. 25, 1977 at San Francisco when he scored on 32-yard screen pass as halfback, 19-yard run on flanker reverse and 73-yard bomb after faking curl pattern and doing takeoff . . . he missed entire 1979 preseason when he suffered hairline fracture of transverse process during scrimmage with New Orleans . . . he recovered quickly to produce 5-121 and 8-127 efforts in late September . . . his only long absence with injury was last five games of 1976 with broken left leg . . . third-round draftee, 78th player in 1974 . . . he won Tommy Fitzgerald Memorial Award as outstanding rookie in training camp when he grabbed TD passes of 73 and 67 yards in first Dolphin preseason game . . . he was fifth-round choice of Jacksonville Sharks in short-lived World Football League.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was gamebreaker in 1972 as Florida junior by rushing for 845 yards and catching 25 passes for another 351 yards . . . injuries slowed him as senior, and after Dolphins drafted him, he underwent knee surgery in May 1974 . . . he had been freshman dropout at Tennessee-Martin and had played basketball at Miami-Dade Community College South where coach touted him to Florida . . . full name Nathaniel (no middle name), born Sept. 19, 1951 in Tallahassee, he was raised in Miami and starred as All-City running back at Edison High in 1968 . . . he and wife Patricia live in North Miami with daughters Trellanee (3-30-70) and Natalie (11-3-77) . . . he coaches an AAU basketball team, International Players, which has won three Gold Coast titles . . . he is producer of "Jimmy G. International DJ's," for disco parties . . . he and former teammate Larry Little opened Superstars Rollertheque, a roller-skating disco, in 1981.

ED NEWMAN

Guard   64

6-2, 255   Duke
9th Year   (D6, 1973)
Born June 4, 1951

His torpedo-like blocking charge has made him a powerful part of the Dolphins' offensive line and a potential All-Pro . . . uncommonly strong and mobile, he has emerged from the giant shadows of Super Bowl guards Bob Kuechenberg and Larry Little . . . he became full-time starter in his sixth season (1978) and has logged 33 consecutive starts over the past two seasons . . . he has title of all-time strongest Dolphin with 485 pounds in bench press, and he can do more than 10 repetitions of 400 pounds . . . "Working hard has never been an obstacle to me," he says . . . he has 58 career starts with 38 at left guard and 20 at right guard, and he had Kuechenberg alongside him at left tackle in 1978 and 1979 . . . he moved to right guard in 1980 (except for 4th through 6th games) and proved an able successor to Little . . . "An overpriced insurance policy finally paid off," he describes his diligent bid for starting role . . . he started 1973 finale as Little rested sore shoulder, and Dolphins earned dividends in 1974 when Newman started four games at LG, then again in 1976 when he toiled four games at each guard position as injuries forced adjustments . . . he had played in 83 consecutive games and started 5th through 12th games in 1978 but he tore ligaments in left knee and was idled the rest of the season . . . his obsession for superb conditioning sprang from his courageous victory over cancer when malignant tumor on thyroid gland required two throat operations in January 1975 . . . a tough regimen of weightlifting, bicycling and swimming restored his strength . . . "I'm no medical hero," he insists, "but I think people can overcome problems with determination" . . . sixth-round draftee, 156th player in 1973 . . . Dolphins went through four drafts (1974-77) without finding more help in offensive line.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: An All-Atlantic Coast Conference guard and defensive tackle at Duke, he twice won the ACC heavyweight wrestling crown . . . B.S. in psychology . . . full name Edward Kenneth, born June 4, 1951 in New York, he starred at Syosset High on Long Island . . . he and wife Cathy (married 1-23-77) live in Miami with their daughter Stephani (3-26-79) . . . he has a cat named "Monte Clark" after his first Dolphin offensive line coach . . . he did TV promotional spot for United Way in 1980 and is currently promoting blood drive for John Elliott Community Blood Center . . he opened Fitness Center in North Miami in June 1981.

GERALD SMALL

Cornerback 48

5-11, 192   San Jose State
4th Year   (D4a, 1978)
Born Aug. 10, 1956

A greyhound-swift cornerback who delivers the big play, he has become and accomplished pass thief and "elder statesman" in a precocious Dolphin secondary . . . he can neutralize opponents' deep threat with his challenging man-on-man coverage . . . good instinct for football has frustrated opponents since 10 of his 16 career interceptions have occurred inside the Dolphin 10-yard line . . . a fluid runner who covers 40 yards in 4.5 seconds—a dead heat with cornerback Don McNeal . . . he has 37 consecutive starts at right cornerback since being promoted in last month of 1978 rookie season, and he answered 16 starting calls in 1980 despite hip pointer . . . he ranked fifth in NFL with seven interceptions in 1980, and his career total of 277 yards is Dolphin record for cornerbacks . . . he ended QB Bert Jones' streak of 251 pass attempts against Dolphins without an interception when he made third-quarter theft in 1980 victory at Baltimore . . . he intercepted Jack Thompson in final minute to secure 17-16 triumph over Cincinnati . . . four of his runbacks have been sprints of 39, 40, 40 and 46 yards . . . as a rookie, he jetted 46 yards for clinching touchdown against Oakland after ball ricocheted off chest of Raiders' Cliff Branch . . . alert rookie diagnosed flea-flicker pass and intercepted near goal line in 1978 shutout of Washington . . . he also started 1978 opener for Curtis Johnson and then played extensively as "nickel" back while serving on special teams (twice recovering fumbled punts) . . . he was voted Rookie of Year by South Florida media and also won Tommy Fitzgerald Memorial Award as outstanding rookie in 1978 training camp . . . fourth-round draftee, 93rd player in 1978.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He had 12 career interceptions for 239 yards (19.9-yard average) at San Jose State, but a separated left shoulder sidelined him for five games as a senior and may have knocked him from first-round consideration in draft . . . as sophomore he snatched seven passes for 104 yards and two TDs, and Spartans were 9-2 in 1975 when he and Dolphin linebacker Kim Bokamper were teammates . . . three-time All-Pacific Coast Athletic Association choice, he played in Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine game . . . full name Gerald David, born Aug. 10, 1956 in Washington, N.C., he was a quarterback at Desert High, Edwards Air Force Base, Ca. . . . bachelor lives in Atlanta.

DAVID WOODLEY

Quarterback　16

6-2, 204　　　　　　　　　Louisiana State
2nd Year　　　　　　　　　(D8b, 1980)
Born Oct. 25, 1958

His incredible adventure as a Dolphin rookie may be only the first chapter in the saga of one of the NFL's outstanding quarterbacks . . . he parlayed a truly rare combination of strong arm, maneuverability and intelligence into the team's Most Valuable Player award . . . he rose from a training-camp laborer to an intriguing prospect to a poised leader of the Dolphin offense and unanimous NFL All-Rookie honors . . . he engineered one of the biggest upsets in Dolphin history—a 35-14 rout of Los Angeles—by passing for three touchdowns and scrambling for two more TDs against a Rams defense which put five players in the Pro Bowl . . . he used that momentum for a seven-game finish that read 115 completions in 207 attempts (55.6 percent) for 1,335 yards and 12 TDs, only 7 interceptions . . . his exceptional quickness in avoiding the pass rush and getting loose makes him difficult to defense. . . he gained 214 yards on 55 carries (3.9-yard average), surpassing the rookie totals of "scrambler" Bob Griese in 1967 . . . his 5-5 record as starter for final 10 games included victories over three AFC East rivals topped by three TD passes at Baltimore . . . his 54-yard heave to Duriel Harris set up winning field goal in overtime against New England, and he completed 11 of 17 passes in a victory over AFC East champion Buffalo . . . he had plays called from the sideline throughout rookie season . . . he was overlooked in 1980 draft because he operated in a two-quarterback system at Louisiana State . . . eighth-round draftee, 214th player and 13th quarterback in draft . . . he was No. 4 on depth chart until his scintillating preseason efforts (31 points in only five quarters) precipitated the trading of QB Guy Benjamin to New Orleans . . . he was spectator to Griese/Strock duel until he was given opportunity in fourth game against New Orleans, but 4-of-15 passing with three interceptions put him on the bench at halftime . . . he was a winner against Buffalo three weeks later . . . his cool, unruffled manner invites comparisons to Griese, and he was first rookie since Griese in 1967 to earn MVP honor.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He shared quarterbacking duties with Steve Ensminger at Louisiana State, but Woodley took charge in LSU finale by directing 34-10 rout of Wake Forest in Tangerine Bowl . . . he completed 11 of 19 passes for 199 yards and one TD, and he rushed for 75 yards on 10 carries and scored two TDs . . . Woodley and Ensminger led Southeastern Conference quarterbacks in total offense with 2,315 yards in 1979 . . . Woodley completed 55 of 118 passes (46.6 percent) for 874 yards, two TDs and six interceptions . . . career totals were 151-of-310 marksmanship (48.7 percent) for 2,084 yards, eight TDs and 15 interceptions . . . he also piled up 833 yards on 218 carries with 14 TDs for Tigers . . . he may be the first NFL quarterback to collect more TDs running than passing while in college . . . full name David Eugene, born Oct. 25, 1958 in Shreveport, La., he starred at Byrd High in same city that produced Joe Ferguson and Terry Bradshaw . . . lawyer's son is the fifth of seven children . . . majored in computer science . . . he and wife Suzanne (married 6-13-81) live in Baton Rouge.

Buffalo 17, Miami 7

Orchard Park, N.Y., Sept. 7 — The Bills ended a decade of frustration and an NFL-record 20 consecutive losses to the Dolphins, and a sellout crowd of 79,598 toppled the goalposts in celebration. Quarterback Joe Ferguson, who had lost 15 times to the Dolphins, directed a 68-yard touchdown drive capped by a four-yard rollout pass to fullback Roosevelt Leaks with 3:42 remaining. That gave the Bills a 10-7 edge, and an interception by linebacker Isiah Robertson and his 39-yard return set up a clinching two-yard TD plunge by rookie Joe Cribbs. The Dolphins couldn't discourage the Bills with five interceptions and two fumble recoveries (rookie cornerback Don McNeal figured in three takeaways). QB Bob Griese flipped a four-yard TD pass to halfback Tony Nathan in the third quarter. But a Bills defense led by safety Jeff Nixon's three interceptions kept the visitors in check.

Miami 17, Cincinnati 16

Miami, Sept. 14 — An inspired 10-point rally in the final minutes wrought a Dolphin victory with Uwe von Schamann booting a 39-yard field goal at 1:55 remaining. Nat Moore snagged a 15-yard touchdown pass from Don Strock on the first play of the fourth quarter, but the Bengals tackled fullback Steve Howell for a safety with 6:12 to play for a 16-7 bulge. Punter George Roberts executed a squib kick which rookie Jeff Allen recovered at the Miami 35. A bizarre TD on a fumble recovery by Nick Giaquinto in the end zone (Duriel Harris had caught a 33-yard pass but he fumbled and the ball bounced another 12 yards) brought the Dolphins within 16-14. Then rookie Bill Barnett blocked an attempted punt by Pat McInally at the Cincinnati 30, and three running plays set the stage for von Schamann's kick.

Miami 20, Atlanta 17

Atlanta, Sept. 21 — Quarterback Bob Griese sparked a 17-point rally in the fourth quarter for the 100th victory of his 14-year career. Griese won it the same way he posted his first win as a rookie in 1967, by coming off the bench. He relieved Don Strock late in the first half. An 87-yard kickoff return by Don Bessillieu ignited the comeback, and Griese flipped short touchdown passes to tight ends Bruce Hardy and Ronnie Lee at 12:40 and 4:24, respectively, to tie it at 17-all. Nose tackle Bob Baumhower blocked Tim Mazzetti's attempted 50-yard field goal with 2:03 on the clock. Then a 33-yard hookup from Griese to Nat Moore plus a penalty moved the Dolphins into position for Uwe von Schamann's winning 27-yard field goal with 32 seconds to play.

Miami 21, New Orleans 16

Miami, Sept. 28 — With second-half touchdown drives of 91, 82 and 49 yards, quarterback Bob Griese spurred the Dolphins to their third "miracle" finish in three Sundays. The Dolphins wiped out a 16-0 deficit with Griese's 241-yard passing exhibition in the second half. Running back Tony Nathan caught seven passes for 118 yards, and a 54-yard bomb from Griese to Duriel Harris set up one touchdown. Delvin Williams spurted eight yards for the winning score with 2:36 remaining. New Orleans built a 9-0 halftime lead while the Dolphin rookie David Woodley was intercepted three times in his first start.

Ike Harris caught a 25-yard TD pass from Archie Manning in the third quarter and Harris also leaped to snare an apparent TD on the game's final play but it was nullified by offensive pass interference.

Baltimore 30, Miami 17

Miami, Oct. 5 — Quarterback Bert Jones proved unstoppable in the second half, spurring the Colts on touchdown drives of 80, 71 and 34 yards to overtake the Dolphins. As it turned out, it was the final game in the career of quarterback Bob Griese, who suffered a severely sprained right shoulder when he was hit by defensive end Mike Ozdowski after releasing a pass. Griese exited with seven minutes to play. Jones, who had missed the last four Dolphin-Colts games in 1978 and 1979, upped his career record against Miami 7-2. He completed 18 of 26 passes for 282 yards and three touchdowns including two TD strikes to Roger Carr. Jones also scrambled nine yards for the clinching TD with 7:31 remaining. Griese had built a 17-10 halftime edge by hitting 17 of 26 passes for 222 yards and TDs to rookie Nick Giaquinto and Duriel Harris.

New England 34, Miami 0

Foxboro, Mass., Oct. 12 — For the first time in 10 years, the Dolphins were held scoreless and netted an all-time low of 88 yards total offense. New England mounted a 17-0 halftime advantage behind quarterback Steve Grogan, who fired a 33-yard touchdown pass to Harold Jackson moments after rookie halfback Vagas Ferguson had sprinted 44 yards. The Dolphins' defense kept things respectable with three interceptions (two by Don McNeal) and four QB sacks, but the Patriots pulled away in the fourth quarter with Matt Cavanaugh at the controls. Dolphin punter George Roberts tied a club record with 10 punts for a 44.5-yard average. QB Don Strock suffered a mild concussion in the second period and rookie David Woodley was harassed the remainder of the day.

Miami 17, Buffalo 14

Miami, Oct. 19 — Workhorse fullback Terry Robiskie, signed as a free agent only 16 days earlier, powered 84 yards on 18 carries to lead a ball-control Dolphin offense. Rookie quarterback David Woodley got another starting call three weeks after a woeful debut against New Orleans, and he completed 11 of 17 passes. He threw a three-yard touchdown strike to Nat Moore just 22 seconds before halftime. The defense had staked Miami to a 7-0 lead when end Vern Den Herder forced the first of three fumbles by Bills rookie Joe Cribbs and safety Don Bessillieu snatched the ball and dashed 44 yards for a score. The Bills marched 66 yards with the passing of Joe Ferguson (seven straight completions), but the seven-yard TD toss to Jerry Butler came with only 1:19 to play.

New York Jets 17, Miami 14

New York, Oct. 27 — A touchdown pass from David Woodley to Joe Rose was nullified by a holding penalty on the first series, and it was all downhill for the Dolphins on Monday night TV. Quarterback Richard Todd marched the Jets 99 yards in 17 plays for their first touchdown, set up by a 22-yard gain on a flare pass to Scott Dierking. On their third possession, the Jets drove 74 yards in 14 plays with Todd scrambling 16 yards for the TD just 59 seconds before halftime. It was Miami's fifth scoreless first half in eight games. The Dolphins averted a shutout in the final minute when Woodley fired an 11-yard TD pass to Tony Nathan on fourth-and-goal. Then Miami's Jeff Allen retrieved an onside kick. Woodley quickly took the Dolphins 62 yards on four passes and Nathan got the 63rd yard on a vault over tackle.

Oakland 16, Miami 10

Oakland, Nov. 2 — A swarming Raider defense limited the Dolphins to one first down and 19 yards in their last five possessions and protected a six-point lead. Oakland quarterback Jim Plunkett hurled first-half touchdown passes of 13 yards to Ray Chester and 17 yards to Bob Chandler, sandwiching a 48-yard field goal by Chris Bahr. QB Don Strock replaced David Woodley at halftime; the Dolphins failed to score a TD in the first half for the seventh time in nine games. A fumble recovery by safety Glenn Blackwood at the Oakland 35 and a 19-yard pass from Strock to Nat Moore put the Dolphins in position for a two-yard TD plunge by Terry Robiskie. Interceptions by Larry Gordon and Gerald Small plus a 71-yard punt by George Roberts helped the Dolphins blank the Raiders in the second half.

Miami 35, Los Angeles 14

Anaheim, Ca., Nov. 9 — Rookie quarterback David Woodley ramrodded one of the biggest upsets in Dolphin history with a five-touchdown performance against the defending NFC champions. Woodley passed for three TDs and scrambled twice for scores as the Dolphins rolled up 280 yards rushing. Woodley was never sacked, and he eluded the Rams' pass rush for TD runs of six and 10 yards. He completed 17 of 28 passes for 161 yards with TD passes of 31 yards to Tony Nathan, six yards to Nat Moore and two yards to Bruce Hardy. Delvin Williams rushed for 151 yards including a 65-yard sprint, and Nathan amassed 128 yards with 57 rushing and 71 receiving. Miami's defense intercepted Vince Ferragamo four times, and an end-zone theft by safety Don Bessillieu in the fourth quarter sealed the win.

Miami 17, San Francisco 13

Miami, Nov. 16 — More than 50 former Dolphins had assembled for a 15th anniversary reunion, and the "new generation" of Dolphins used a tactic of the Super Bowl years, killing the last 8½ minutes of the clock. Miami needed an 80-yard touchdown drive in the third quarter to overtake the persistent 49ers. Quarterback David Woodley completed all four passes for 57 yards on the nine-play drive, and Tony Nathan took a swing pass for the final eight yards. Woodley finished with a season-best 18-of-25 marksmanship for 222 yards including a 15-yard TD to Nat Moore. The 49ers' Steve DeBerg completed 15 consecutive passes in the first half and had 29-of-41 accuracy but no TDs and no gain longer than 19 yards. An interception by linebacker Ralph Ortega at the Miami 20 halted the 49ers' last threat.

San Diego 27, Miami 24

Miami, Nov. 20 — An interception by linebacker Woodrow Lowe and a 28-yard field goal by Rolf Benirschke stung the Dolphins in sudden-death overtime on Thursday night TV. Lowe intercepted David Woodley and dashed 28 yards to the Miami 12, putting the Chargers in range for Benirschke, the NFL runnerup in scoring. Quarterback Dan Fouts, who set an NFL record in 1980 with 4,715 yards passing, was matched by Woodley pass for pass. On a fourth-and-7 situation, Woodley hit Jimmy Cefalo with a 13-yard pass at the San Diego two-yard line to set up the tying touchdown by Delvin Williams on a fourth-down plunge with 1:21 remaining. Fouts passed for three TDs in the see-saw battle.

Pittsburgh 23, Miami 10

Pittsburgh, Nov. 30 — The Steelers marched 98 yards in 15 plays for a clinching fourth-quarter touchdown following a Dolphin fumble at the goal line. Pittsburgh led, 16-3, when a perfectly executed 31-yard touchdown pass from David Woodley to Nat Moore opened the fourth quarter and pulled the Dolphins within 16-10. A fumble recovery on the ensuing kickoff and a penalty set up the Dolphins at the Pittsburgh 17. Five plays later, with second-and-goal from the one, Tony Nathan leaped for the end zone and lost the football in a collision with cornerback Ron Johnson. The Steeler drive was capped by a nine-yard TD burst by fullback Franco Harris, who gained 116 yards on 28 carries. Quarterback Terry Bradshaw passed for 289 yards including four hookups with Theo Bell for 173 yards.

Miami 16, New England 13

Miami, Dec. 8 — Uwe von Schamann booted his third game-winning field goal of the season, a 23-yard shot just 3:20 into sudden-death overtime, for the Dolphins' first overtime victory since 1971. The Dolphins knocked New England out of the playoff picture and avenged a 34-0 drubbing in October. Quarterback David Woodley heaved a 54-yard bomb to Duriel Harris, who outleaped Patriots' safety Tim Fox, and von Schamann was summoned immediately. Nose tackle Bob Baumhower had blocked a 35-yard field-goal attempt by NFL scoring leader John Smith on the final play of regulation. Woodley, who completed 11 straight passes, directed a 78-yard touchdown drive to tie it with 2:28 remaining. Woodley's nine-yard TD pass ricocheted from tight end Joe Rose to an alert Nat Moore in the end zone.

Miami 24, Baltimore 14

Baltimore, Dec. 14 — Quarterback David Woodley fired three touchdown passes and fullback Woody Bennett pranced 86 yards on 20 carries to overpower the Colts. It was only Miami's third victory in 10 meetings with QB Bert Jones, whose streak of 251 pass attempts without an interception against the Dolphins was halted by cornerback Gerald Small. In a duel of Louisiana State quarterbacks, Woodley unloaded scoring strikes of 19 yards to Bennett, 37 yards to Jimmy Cefalo and 26 yards to Nat Moore, the latter coming with 6:13 on the clock. A 38-yard TD escape by rookie Curtis Dickey and a 16-yard TD pass from Jones to tight end Reese McCall gave the Colts a tie in the third quarter. But interceptions by Small and Ed Taylor stymied Jones, who completed only one of his last nine passes.

New York Jets 24, Miami 17

Miami, Dec. 20 — An NBC-TV experiment using no announcers for a national telecast was a somber backdrop to the Dolphins' sixth consecutive loss to the Jets. Rookie safety Darrol Ray snared a pass which bounced off Nat Moore, and Ray sped 71 yards for a touchdown that opened a 21-10 lead in the third quarter. The Dolphins wasted several scoring opportunities. Uwe von Schamann converted only one field goal in three attempts, and quarterback David Woodley was stopped on a fourth-down sneak at the Jets' five-yard line at the outset of the fourth quarter. Woodley capped a 57-yard drive with a two-yard TD scramble with 8:15 to play, but the Jets clinched it with Pat Leahy's 34-yard field goal at 2:57 and an end-zone interception by Don Dykes at 1:19.

DOLPHINS 24-0 VS. 10 CLUBS

The Miami Dolphins have built a perfect 24-0 record against 10 clubs in the National Football League through the 1980 season. Only one of those 10 clubs, St. Louis, will be met during the 1981 regular season.

Those teams which have never beaten Miami are Atlanta (0-3), Chicago (0-3), Detroit (0-2), Green Bay (0-3), New Orleans (0-3), New York Giants (0-1), St. Louis (0-3), San Francisco (0-3), Seattle (0-2) and Tampa Bay (0-1).

Miami set an NFL record with 20 consecutive victories over Buffalo from 1970 to 1979. Entering 1981, the Dolphins have beaten New England 13 straight times at the Orange Bowl and Buffalo 12 straight times at home.

VIKINGS OLD FOES

The longest-running preseason series for the Miami Dolphins has been a see-saw rivalry with the Minnesota Vikings, who hold a 6-5 edge entering 1981. The home-and-home series has gone uninterrupted since 1971 with the initial encounter held in Tampa in 1969.

From 1971 through 1978, the home team prevailed in the Dolphins/Vikings series.

The Dolphins won 11 consecutive preseason games until the Vikings tripped them in 1977, and Miami built another 10-game preseason streak before bowing to Minnesota in 1980.

In preseason games, the Dolphins are 27-12-2 in the Orange Bowl, 16-12 on the road and 4-7-1 at neutral sites.

1970 AFC PLAYOFF
Raiders Sink Dolphins With 82-Yard Bomb

Oakland, Dec. 27 — Quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud.

The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, had taken a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime.

Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line.

The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field-goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

1971 AFC PLAYOFF
Dolphins Outlast Chiefs in Longest Game

Kansas City, Dec. 25 — Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by thumping a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-34, on Chirstmas Day.

The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation.

Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson made a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try.

Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 52-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP
Anderson, No-Names Stymie Colts, 21-0

Miami, Jan. 2, 1972 — Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939.

Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a John Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads."

Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka.

The Colts hadn't been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI
Cowboys Flatten Luckless Dolphins, 24-3

New Orleans, Jan. 16, 1972 — A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium.

Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times.

The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period.

Although it was intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in seven plays after kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF
Late TD Drive Rescues Unbeaten Dolphins

Miami, Dec. 24 — On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns.

Morrall, the NFL's leading passer as he replaced injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns' 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the 8.

Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when linebacker Doug Swift intercepted quarterback Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20.

Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed, 14-13, with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP
Griese Comes Off Bench to Rally 21-17 Win

Pittsburgh, Dec. 31 — Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather.

Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run to set up that TD.

Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play.

In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII
Dolphins Achieve Perfection in 17th Win

Los Angeles, Jan. 14, 1973 — "This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries.

A record Super Bowl crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offsides penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles.

An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 47-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score.

Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end-zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a block field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF
Stout Defense Cages Bengals, 34-16

Miami, Dec. 23 — A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory.

Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin.

The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals for 46 and 12 yards — the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff — to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP
Dolphins Grind Raiders With 266 Rushing

Miami, Dec. 30 — A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title.

Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead.

Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards culminating in a field goal and 40 yards ending in Csonka's third TD.

Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play.

Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII
Dolphins Demolish Vikings, 24-7

Houston, Jan. 13, 1974 — Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium.

There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge.

It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line.

A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked it to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents, 85-33, in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka gained a Super Bowl record 145 yards and was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF
Dream of 'Triple Crown' Shattered

Oakland, Dec. 21 — Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrested from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins.

Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining.

It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier, Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD.

The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC "WILD-CARD" PLAYOFF
Oilers Jolt Erring Dolphins, 17-9

Miami, Dec. 24 — The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage and, aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC "wild-card" entries at the Orange Bowl.

Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half.

Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnest Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied.

Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF
Steelers Blitz Dolphins in First Quarter

Pittsburgh, Dec. 30 — Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium.

Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive.

The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone.

Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

Fullback Larry Csonka linked three seasons (1971-73) with over 1,000 yards rushing but seldom had a 100-yard game—three in 1971, four in 1972 and three in 1973. Yet in one stretch of five playoff games, he topped 100 yards four times!

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins have consistently ranked in the top echelon of pro football. Miami is one of only three teams to win more than 70 percent of their games (.703) and the Dolphins have more regular-season victories (112) than any AFC club.

PRESS INFORMATION

Certified newspaper, radio and television representatives should address all requests for working press credentials to:

Bob Kearney, Public Relations Director

Miami Dolphins, 3550 Biscayne Boulevard, Miami 33137

The Press Gate is located between Gates 9 and 10 on the south side of the Orange Bowl, and access to press parking is NW Third Street at 15th Avenue. Credentials are left with an attendant at the Press Gate two hours before kickoff. Requests for press parking should be made to the Stadium Manager's office at 305-579-6971.

On Level 5 of the pressbox are located the radio booth for the visiting team and the position for coaches' films.

ORANGE BOWL STADIUM

The Orange Bowl has a seating capacity of 75,459 but can be expanded to more than 80,000 seats for the Super Bowl with the addition of bleachers in the east end zone. Five of the first 13 Super Bowls were played in Miami.

Prescription Athletic Turf was installed in March 1976 to replace the Poly-Turf of the previous six seasons.

The stadium was a Works Progress Administration project built in 1937 for $325,000 with a seating capacity of 25,000. Some 12,000 bleacher seats were added in 1945, and in 1948, double-decking of the north and south stands boosted capacity to 60,000. Some 7,500 seats were added in 1949 with the sale of $50 non-interest bonds, and capacity reached 68,000 in 1953. The west end zone was decked in 1968 to attain 75,000 seats, and from 1971 through 1976, bleachers in the east end zone (removed in 1977) gave a capacity of 80,045.

RICK WEAVER

Rick Weaver, an outstanding play-by-play broadcaster recognized throughout the NFL, will be calling the Dolphins' action for his 11th season in 1981. He is sports director of WIOD (610 AM), which has originated Dolphin broadcasts since the team's inception in 1966. Veteran newsman Henry Barrow and sports analyst Hank Goldberg will provide color commentary.

SOUTH FLORIDA MEDIA

The Dolphins receive daily coverage by eight newspapers and six TV stations in a three-county area plus frequent coverage by other South Florida media outlets.

Six writers cover the Dolphins on a daily beat—Charlie Nobles, Miami News; Larry Dorman, Miami Herald; Andy Cohen, Fort Lauderdale Sun-Sentinel; Dave Wieczorek, Fort Lauderdale News; Jay Lawrence, Palm Beach Post; and Tony DeMarco, Hollywood Sun-Tattler.

South Florida columnists include Edwin Pope and Bob Rubin, Miami Herald; John Crittenden, Miami News; Bernie Lincicome, Fort Lauderdale News; John Meyer, Fort Lauderdale Sun-Sentinel; Steve Hummer, Palm Beach Post; George Cunill, Diario Las Americas; Ed Plaisted, Hollywood Sun-Tattler. Other regular writers include Mike Janofsky and Gary Long, Miami Herald; Tom Archdeacon, Miami News; Tom Curtis, Dolphin Digest; Fred Goodall, Associated Press; Les Kjos, United Press International; Luis Perez, El Miami Herald; and Bill Pinella, Palm Beach Times.

Miami's TV coverage is the most extensive in the NFL with John Arminio (WTVJ-4), Larry Burnett (WCKT-7), Chuck Dowdle (WPLG-10), Jim Gallagher (WPEC-12), Buck Kinniard (WPTV-5), John Loesing (WCIX-6), Chris Myers (WTVJ-4), Dan O'Brien (WCKT-7), Bernie Rosen (WTVJ-4), Steve Ruskin (Telsport), Tony Segreto (WTVJ-4), Larry Sugarman (WPLG-10), Lee Webb (WCKT-7) and Dave Willingham (WCKT-7).
